Come Out For Healthcare

IMPROVE ADJUNCT HEALTH BENEFITS AND RENEW THE HRA

Let Your Voices Be Heard On Wednesday, December 7

Since last March, the LACCD Board of Trustees has stalled on requests to discuss improved medical benefits for adjunct faculty and the extension of the $1500 HRA for full-time employees.

On November 2nd, faculty and classified staff rallied at the Board meeting at Southwest College. Loud and proud, union members filled the room and reminded the Trustees to "support their employees."

On December 7th at Valley College, the Board will consider a motion to reopen talks on these vitally important elements of our health benefits.

Having access to affordable health care for our members -- full time and adjunct faculty -- is a priority for the Guild. We need the Board of Trustees to be demonstrate their commitment to District employees -- and their well-being.

The next Board of Trustees meeting is: Wednesday, December 7th.
