Ethel McClatchey Scholarship

$1000 award

The Los Angeles College Faculty Guild AFT 1521 has established a scholarship in the name of Ethel McClatchey in recognition of her many years of service to the union. She has received both national and local recognition from the American Federation of Teachers and the Los Angeles Community College District for her union and professional activities.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

1. Students attending a Los Angeles Community College in the Spring Semester of 2022 with a 3.0 GPA in all academic classes and planning to transfer to a four year college are qualified for this scholarship.
2. Include an unofficial current transcript of your LACCD classes.
3. ESSAY. Applicant is required to submit a one page, double-spaced, typed essay. Essay should show originality in thought and ability to write clearly and well. Please proofread your work. In your essay, tell us about your interests and future plans. What do you expect to be doing five years from now?
4. Complete this application. Type or print clearly. Submit with all required materials. Use additional page if you need more room.
5. Please scan and submit all of your completed application materials in pdf form and email to ethelmcclatcheyscholarship@gmail.com on or before Friday April 22, 2022. Applications received after this date will not be accepted. Applications received via any format other than email submission will not be accepted. Due to the volume of applications received, you will not receive an email confirming that your application has been received.
6. This award must be used towards the pursuit of educational and/or career goals and the AFT 1521 Foundation reserves the right to request documentation that award money has been used in pursuit of these ends.
